FINE GOLF IN FINE WEATHER.

Exciting Matches in the Second Round of Individual Intercollegiate Championship Tournament at Garden City.

(Special to The Evening World.)
GAPDEN CITY, May 9.—With the exception of a high wind, the collegians, who started in the second round of the individual championship of the Intercolleciate Golf Association were favored with most desirable weather. Some very interesting matches were played tills morning. Hugh I. Wilson. Prince-ton. and Walter E. Lean, Harvard, carrying a fine gallery; C. Hitchcock, Jr., Vale, had F. O. Reinhart, Princeton, for an apponent. H. B. McFarland, University of Pennsylvania, played H. C. ligan, Harvard, and S. Slossop, Columbin, was pitted against Abram - cole.

A spirited match was played in a gale L wind between Wilson and Walter Jan, the former going out in 40 and adding by 6 up at the turn. He finally on by 3 up and 2 to 6 play. Their ards were:
